

27-7046-112

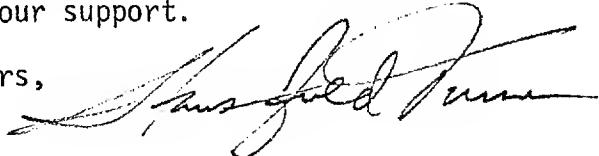

4 April 1977

Dear Mr. Shackman,

Thanks so much for your nice note of congratulations on my new appointment. I will do my best to live up to your expectations.

Enclosed is the photograph you requested. Again, thanks for your support.

Yours,

STANSFIELD TURNER
Admiral, U.S. Navy
Director of Central Intelligence

Enclosure

Mr. Arthur O. Shackman

STAT

all last 77-6616
Answered
See 62-777044
A-22

A-22

SECRET SECURITY FILE

FILE NUMBER - 100-100000
TO EX-SPY INTELLIGENCE
SECTION

STAT

Arthur O. Hackman

Approved For Release 2004/02/19 : CIA-RDP80M00165A000500030044-9

7-8-77
77-7076

Dear Admiral Stansfield Turner
Congratulations and Best Wishes on your being selected
Director of the C. I. A.

You truly deserve this most important position because of your giving so many tireless years of service to our great Country and people - and the U.S. Navy -

Did you serve in the Pacific
during World War II?

May God Bless You and Your Family Always

Respectfully
Hackman

P.S. Would greatly appreciate an autograph photograph of yourself
Thank You

Approved For Release 2004/02/19 : CIA-RDP80M00165A00050000
Dear Director General Stanfield
Turner,
Executive
77-
1

Sir,

Congratulations and Best Wishes
on your becoming Director of the C.I.A.
a most important and honored position.

lead the defense and security of our Great Country and the World should be our first concern and have the fullest confidence in our President and you as Director of the Central Intelligence Agency - Yours very truly, Our President

the Central Legislature
May God Bless You, our President and our Country always -
D. H. Dyer,

Respectfully yours,
W. W. May March 1, 1977

P.S. Would greatly appreciate an auto graph photograph of you-self Thank You!

Arthur O. Shackman